

Anna Morris

Student & President

Piedmont High School's Feminism Club

Anna Morris is a senior at Piedmont High School. She is very passionate about women's issues and social justice. She has been President of her school's Feminism Club for two years, and works to bring awareness to feminism in her school community through photo campaigns and current event discussions. Anna also works to promote gender equality in the media through her involvement with Camp Reel Stories, a media camp for girls, which she has attended for the past three years.
