Keynote Panel: The Future of the Girls Movement

2016 is the Year of the Girl. It is an exciting time. The California Fair Pay Act is now law, the White House pledged $118 million toward girls and women of color, and Hillary Rodham Clinton is running for president! It is also a frightening time. Basic reproductive rights are being threatened and girls are the fastest growing population in the juvenile justice system. Panelists will include leaders who are on the frontlines of these critical issues for girls. The panel will explore the importance of this moment in the girls’ movement, and key trends that will impact girls’ futures.
