

Lara Kaufmann

Director of Public Policy
Girls Inc.

Lara S. Kaufmann is Director of Public Policy for Girls Inc., where she leads the organization's work to advance the rights and opportunities of all girls. Prior to joining Girls Inc., Ms. Kaufmann was Senior Counsel and Director for Education Policy for At-Risk Students at the National Women's Law Center, where she engaged in litigation, advocacy, and outreach to improve educational outcomes for at-risk girls and young women. Lara co-authored NWLC's 2014 report with NAACP LDF entitled Unlocking Opportunity for African American Girls: A Call to Action for Education Equity, its 2012 report entitled A Pregnancy Test for Schools: The Impact of Education Laws on Pregnant and Parenting Students, and its 2009 report with MALDEF entitled Listening to Latinas: Barriers to High School Graduation. Ms. Kaufmann has also worked as a Staff Attorney with the Federal Trade Commission's Bureau of Consumer Protection, an Assistant United States Attorney in Chicago, an associate at the law firm of McDermott, Will & Emery, and law clerk to then-Chief Judge Marvin Aspen of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.